Club Equipment and Rhib Levy Charges

RHIB:

Dive Trips:

£20 per club member per diving day, paid to the club. This will include rhib levy and rhib fuel costs.

Towing fuel will be split, with 50% paid by the tower, and other 50% split equally between the remaining rhib users, paid to the tower.

Boat Handling courses/other rhib use:

£20 per club member per day, paid to the club. This will include rhib levy and rhib fuel.

Towing costs to be covered 100% by the course attendees, paid to instructor.

For insurance purposes, anyone using the rhib for a course needs to be a club member. If they are not already a club member, this will cost £20 to become a non-diving member.

EQUIPMENT:

Cylinders: £5 per diving weekend, to be returned full

Regulators: £5 per diving weekend

Students kit (Ocean Diver): nominal charge of £20 for the duration of the course and for 2 months following completion. Includes: reg and cylinder, BCD, Mask, Pool fins weight belt and weights.

Thereafter: cylinder and reg charge will be £20/month for a maximum of 6 months (other items included as necessary in this charge). Should the club need the equipment for training then it will be recalled.

Club Members: who need a longer term loan of equipment will be charged £20/month for a maximum of 6 months as above.
